

Extract from John Royce's "Using Other People's Work, Without Stress and Without Tears," presented at the 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo (Belgium), September 2014.

References inside - out

Author/s

Author/s of the piece: newspaper or magazine article; television programme; web page; chapter in book of readings, academic paper, etc etc.
May also be artist, photographer, composer, etc.

John Royce - Using Other People's Work 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo September 2014

References inside - out

Title

Title of the piece: newspaper or magazine article; television programme; web page; chapter in book of readings, academic paper, etc etc.
Include page numbers if part of a larger work.
May also be title of photograph, painting, music etc

John Royce - Using Other People's Work 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo September 2014

References inside - out

Date of publication

Date the piece was published.

John Royce - Using Other People's Work 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo September 2014

References inside - out

Title of wider publication

Title of the wider publication: newspaper, magazine, journal; television series; web site; book of readings, etc.
Include the editor/s if applicable.

John Royce - Using Other People's Work 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo September 2014

References inside - out

Publication details.

May include publisher, place of publication, URL, DOI.
May also include the date of publication if not already given, edition number, volume and issue numbers, etc.

John Royce - Using Other People's Work 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo September 2014

References inside - out

Other details

Name of database.
Date the item was seen (online)
Format
etc

John Royce - Using Other People's Work 7th ECIS Triennial Librarians' Conference, Waterloo September 2014